MOCKING BIRD

If I had a mocking bird
Boy it would
Sing you my song
Sing it to you thousand times
Sing it to you
All day long

From the dust and trough the night
Until the dawn 'til the day I die
From the dust and trough the night
Until the dawn 'til the day I die

My bird would sing

She made this song so it stays in your head
And
She made this song so you never forget her
And
She made this song so it stays in your head
And
She made this song to make you crazy

UNE ÉTUDE EN ROUGE

Une étude en rouge
Dans une nuit turquoise et verte

Une histoire mal
N'est pas juste mais c'est la vérité

Jeune homme furieux
Dans une nuit turquoise et verte
Et tout va comme tout va
Dans une histoire comme ça

J'attends maintenant
J'attends tout le temps
J'attends la nuit
J'attends le matin

J'attends comme les femmes
Attendent à leurs fils
Il sont déjà morts
Elles ne peuvent pas oublier
J'attends comme les chiens attendent
Je n'attends pas pour rien
J'attends

Une étude en rouge
Dans une nuit mauvaise et blanche

Après tout tout est petite
Si vous regardez à distance

Jeune homme perdu
Se promène comme une ombre

Et tout se passe
Comme vous le savez déjà
Et rien ne change jamais

J'attends maintenant
J'attends la nuit
J'attends le matin

J'attends comme les femmes
Il sont déjà morts

J'attends comme les chiens attendent

Je attends plus rien
J'attends
Oui j'attends
Non, je n'attends pas

Une étude en rouge

HOT TIN ROOF

Your a dog and I'm a cat
On a hot tin roof
On a hot tin roof
All you do is howl when I dance around
On a hot tin roof
On a hot tin roof

Papas's looking down
Mama's looking down
Little sister make a sound
Baby are you still around
Why does a bird fly to the left
Why does a bird fly to the left now

Why do the birds fly
Why won't the time pass
When life's a bore
And love's a drag

Where are you going when I' going down
Where are you going when I' going down
Where are you going when I' going down

Your a man and I'm a girl
On a hot tin roof

On a hot tin roof
All you do is stare and I act like I don't care
On a hot tin roof
On a hot tin roof

Papas's looking down
Mama's looking down

I FORGOT YOU

I forgot you
like you forget a rainy day
Like you forget the breath of May Now that it's cold outside

I forgot you
Though it never was my plan
I used to dream of you
And revenge

You treated me
Like pair of gloves
When you got cold
You picked me up
And I swore
I would change me into something
That you would come back crawling
I forgot you

I forgot you
Like you were and old song

Like you were and old song
Way back then

I forgot you
Way you used to wave my heart
Way you used to tear apart
Every word I said

Funny how life goes
Voice that used to shook me up
Away it flows
Once you were my only one
I don't know what you've become
I forgot you

Dream of you so it seems
Just became a bit too small for me
Once you were the only one
Suddenly you've become Just one of those
I forgot you

WOMAN ON HORIZON

A Woman a dog and a walnut tree
I can't take your eyes out of me

I'm swimming in the shadows and I'm still not free Fading to the darkness and you still want me

A woman a dog and a walnut tree

Marathon mama and a sunday Pa'
Sucking down the garbage all day long Brother in a paragraph
Sister in a coma

Dancing for a dollar
And a lemonade soda

Women on Horizon
Women on Horizon
Women on Horizon
Women on Horizon

Women on Horizon
Women on Horizon
Women on Horizon
Women on Horizon

SONS OF NAKHIMOV

You built me a house on an island
You built me a house on the shore
But I was not meant for dry land
I was not meant for the walls

My fathers they're all sailors
My mothers their the same

Wind will Take care of my soul
I see waves
Swallow my name

I am
I am
I am
I am
I am

I am a son of Nakhimov

They gave me a name on the island
You gave me your heart on the shore
But I'll walk away one hundred times
I was meant for your walls

My fathers they're all sailors

Wind will take care of my soul when I see waves swallow my name

I am
I am
I am
I am
I am

I am a son of Nakhimov

MADEIRA SONG

I lay down my pistols
I lay down my swords
I am tired and bleeding
I will not fight no more

Don't care where they're shooting
If I'm the one they aim
I lay down my weapons
I'll bleed out the blame

I lay down next to your shores
I lay down next to your shores
And the waves make my anger
seem empty and small

I lay down my pistols
I lay down my swords
Left behind my battalion
Won't feed the red no more

With you I feel less forsaken
So you might as well be the one
In your arms I throw myself
Pretend the pain is gone

I lay down next to your shores
And the waves make my anger

LIST BY STEVEN

I have this list of the things that I like
That I hide away
Yes I keep it safe

Ice cream for breakfast and cigarette lunch
Cartoon afternoon
Sun flakes in lemonade, new leather shoes
Violent kiss or two

I have this list of the things that I like
I have this list of the things that I like

I have this list of the things that I like
That I hide away
Yes I keep it safe

Cats on the roof, dogs in a fight
Swing in the wind
Movie monologues, girls that don't pose
Those long-haired high school
Those long-haired high school boys

I have this list of the things that I like
I have this list of the things that I like

Wind in the trees, trees in the skies
My fingers in your hair

Wind in the trees, trees in the skies
My fingers

Wind in the trees, trees in the skies
My fingers in your hair

Wind and the trees, trees in the skies
My fingers
Wind and the trees, trees in the skies
My fingers in your hair
In your hair
In your hair

BLESSED

Blessed are the ones
That don't look at you
When we walk in the street
You make it a view
Blessed are the eyes that Turn away

You took my heart
Tore it apart
Then you mixed it up
With your own broken pieces
Now I'm bleeding
But first time alive

I use the sunlight
As my shield as we run
I use the sunlight
As my shield as we run
And tomorrow will be gone

You took my heart
Tore it apart
Then you mixed it up
Now I'm bleeding
But first time alive

I use the sunlight
As my shield as we run
I use the sunlight
As my shield as we run
And tomorrow will be gone

GRAVITY

We buy things we don't need
With the money we don't have To impress the other people
That don't care

Three for a price of one
Just to make sure
When the gravity is off
You'll have a spare

Always online
Always so wired
Out of rehab maybe
Still in denial baby

I never seem to fail to
Let my love ones down
I never seem to fail to
Let my love ones down

Unattainable unicorn
We have so much and still want more
Obedient behavior
With destructive impulses

I would like to choose the solitude
But I need someone watching me
When I come down from the mountain
Is anybody still out there

always so very tired
Getting hate mail from my love child
Maybe I still don't care baby

I never seem to fail to
Let my loved ones down
I never seem to fail to
Let my loved ones down

We never seem to fail to
Let our loved ones down

You know that I love you
You know that I love you
